w w w . m t c a l v a r y r o t h s c h i l d . o r g

Exciting things are ahead as we move forward in ways to share in ministry with other churches. Vacation Bible School will be hosted this year at St. John in Mosinee. "Cave Quest" runs Monday - Friday on July 22-26 from 9:00 - 11:45. See more information on this adventure for students who have finished 3K - entering 6th grade on page 7.

After VBS week we join together in a shared worship experience at St. John on July 28 at 10:30 am. This outdoor service will be followed by an indoor picnic. There will be no worship service at Mt. Calvary on July 28. Instead, join us at St. John.

More shared worship services are coming! On the fifth Sunday of September our three congregations will come together at Mt. Calvary. On the fifth Sunday of December, we share worship at Bethlehem.

We were blessed to celebrate first communion in June with five youth at Mt. Calvary. Families from both Mt. Calvary and Bethlehem shared in the first communion instruction led by Pastor Andrea Fluegel. Thank you Pastor Andrea! Mt. Calvary families celebrated first communion on June 16 at Mt. Calvary and the two Bethlehem youth celebrated at Bethlehem on the same day. This is another example on how shared ministry can work between congregations.

We are also exploring how we can share in confirmation class instruction. Look for more on this later this summer!

God's Work, Our Hands Sunday is September 8. We've been invited to work with St. Stephen, Good Shepherd, and Pilgrim churches to serve those who are houseless at the Marty Bus in Wausau. We plan to serve a meal, provide clothes from our clothes closet and share in music. If you have access to a Thrivent Action Grant, this is a great opportunity to help offset the food costs.

Teams from Bethlehem, Mt. Calvary and St. John have been meeting monthly to talk about shared ministry. We now also have a small transition sub-group to work on specific details. Representing Mt. Calvary are Chris Marquardt and Kira James. Later this summer we will have another small sub-group to work on finance details. These groups then come back to the larger shared ministry teams who report back to their respective congregations. We are indeed on an exciting journey in shared ministry!

WE NEED YOU!

We need people that can help out with different aspects of worship.

Greeters-We need 2 greeters a week for each service. One at the front entrance and one at the back entrance. You will greet members and visitors and hand them a service bulletin.

Ushers-We need 2 ushers a week for each service. They will collect the offering and if we are celebrating communion they will guide people to the “table”.

Communion Assistants-2 assistants needed for the first, third and fifth Sundays and the preceding Wednesday.

One to hold the wine tray, recite “Blood of Christ shed for You”.

One to pass bread and wine to the pastor and assistant. And help the pastor put the communion cloths on the communion ware.

Wednesdays run the sound, set up the monitor for the call-in service.

Sundays run sound, move camera, live stream on Facebook and record on website.

We do have an usher and communion assistants for Wednesday but they surely don't mind sharing the responsibility. Wednesday service is in need of greeters and Audio tech.

Training will be available for all positions. Please see Lori Lynn, Angela Baker or Bonnie Laessig if you are interested.

Quilts, personal care, school, and baby kits will be packaged in September. To prepare for October we can use help in collecting items. The clothing can be used if it not soiled/spotted or has no holes in it. T-shirts (no onesies), sleepers* (no feet in sleeper, or feet need to be cut off), socks, light weight jacket or sweater with hood or a cap. Donation of flannel can be made for swaddling blankets (1 1/8 yd to 1 1/4 yds needed for each blanket). Blankets are a minimum of 36 inches square and a maximum of 52 inches square. A dark colored hand towel preferred (can be used if in good condition) and 4 oz. soap (such as Ivory, Dove, mild soap no strong scents). (*Baby tops and bottoms can be substituted for the sleepers.) Square crocheted blankets are being accepted this year (36" to 45").

Personal care kits requirement: light weight bath towels (prefer dark colors), 4 oz soap, and toothbrush. Bath towels can be used if in good condition, no pulls, fading, holes or edges fraying. Preferred size of towels is 20" x 40" to 52" x 27".

Filling such as batting, used blankets, old mattress pads to put between the top and back of the quilt. Crochet thread/yarn to tie the quilts together. I am looking for individuals to sew quilt tops or assemble the kits to make the tops.

Items can be purchased new or picked up at garage or estate sales, used clothing stores and resale stores. Also needed are sturdy cardboard boxes to pack the kits and quilts in. Any items can be placed in the box by the display under the balcony, placed in the quilt room on the table, or given to Jane Braatz. Besides in-kind donations, financial donations can be made and directed toward Lutheran World Relief supplies.

Dear Mt Calvary Congregation:

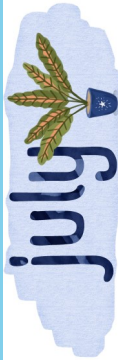

"When Terry hired me 10 years ago, she told me that the members treated the church like their own homes; I have never forgotten that. Now I feel like I'm leaving home.

I have a lot of fond memories to take with me: the rummage sales, the VIPs, VBS, Pastor Rich giggling when he startled me! I have one sad memory: how empty the church felt during Covid. I remember most the laughter and the tears, the love and the losses, the God Moments and Lori Lynn's lunches!

As I leave "home", I want to thank you all for not making this ever feel like a job."

THOUGHTS FROM PASTOR ANDREA FLUEGEL

God can do anything, you know—far more than you could ever imagine or guess or request in your wildest dreams! He does it not by pushing us around but by working within us, his Spirit deeply and gently within us.” (The Message, Ephesians 3:20-21)

Dear Siblings in Christ,

I have an 18-year-old in my house. Some days are rough. He is in a liminal space. I appreciate this definition of liminal space from Theodora Blanchfield, AMFT. She states, “Liminal space is the uncertain transition between where you've been and where you're going physically, emotionally, or metaphorically. To be in a liminal space means to be on the precipice of something new but not quite there yet. The word ‘liminal’ comes from the Latin word “limen,” which means threshold.” My 18-year-old son has graduated high school but hasn't started college yet. He is on the precipice of something new. It's exciting but unsettling too. Weddings, divorce, job transitions, moving, birth of a child, illness, loss of a loved one are just a few examples of when we find ourselves in a liminal space. Even the people of God found themselves in liminal space - when the Hebrews with Moses were wandering the wilderness for 40 years, after Jesus' death, and as they were being sent out to the ends of the earth.

Mt. Calvary is in a time of liminal space. We feel uncertain and unsettled during this time. There are also feelings of grief. It's important to name and notice those feelings. You can even write a letter to God about them. Our feelings have to go someplace so that they don't become hurtful or harmful. Recently, I heard this definition of sin. Sin is anything that diminishes life. In liminal space it is easy to get stuck in our feelings of being unsettled, uncertain, and not in control. It's easy to not spend time naming and noticing our feelings or even connecting to God through Jesus and the Holy Spirit. This can cause us to diminish life in ourselves and in others.

So during this time of transition, of being in a liminal space, what can we do?

Ask yourself, where do you see God in your life and in the world? As Lutherans, we aren't good at naming God's presence on a daily basis. Maybe we say that God helped us through a time of trial or suffering. Maybe from time to time we notice God in the sunsets or in the baby animals being born. But where else do we notice God's presence?

Try this: For the month of July, write down three things that you are grateful for each day. Then each week, look over what you wrote. How was God present in the people, places and things you listed? How was God at work? Then share your insights and observations with a spouse, parent, friend, neighbor, or co-worker.

When you look back over the week or month, how did it make you feel to name what you are grateful for or where you saw God? Do you feel more calm, relaxed, generous, joyful, or loved? How did you feel or act toward others?

Spiritual practices keep us grounded and centered when life gets busy, overwhelming, or out-of-sync. It helps us see that God is walking with us in the joys and hardships of life. Meditation, breathing, centering prayer, and gratitude journals are some of the many ways we can experience God's presence. They also help us to look inward so that we can be open and vulnerable to others, serving others in Jesus' name.

Peace and joy in Christ,

Pastor Andrea Fluegel, Transition Facilitator
